The PhonePass test is presented by a computer system over the telephone. It tests your ability to speak English and to understand spoken English at a conversational pace. You will need to read aloud, repeat sentences, speak words, and answer questions.

Procedure. First, take time to read the test sheet. If there are words or sentences that you don't understand, you may use a dictionary or ask a friend or a teacher for help. When you are ready to begin the test, use an appropriate telephone to call the number printed on the front of the test sheet. You will take the test on your own by following the directions given over the telephone. Relax, concentrate, and do your best. If you do not know how to respond to a test item, just be silent or say "I don't know."

Test Sections. The test has five sections (Part A, B, C, D and E) as follows:

- Part A: Follow the instructions to read selected sentences from among those printed in Part A. Read the sentences in the order requested. Read aloud as smoothly and naturally as you can.
- Part B: Repeat each sentence you hear – exactly as you hear it. Repeat as much of each sentence as you can.
- Part C: For each word you hear, just say the opposite word that is most closely associated with it. This may be an antonym, like white → black, or a parallel counterpart, like wife → husband.
- Part D: Answer the questions that are asked with a single word or a short phrase of two or three words.
- Part E: After you hear each question, wait 8 seconds until you hear a tone, then speak your opinion as fully and clearly as you can using the 30 seconds provided until you hear the next tone. Try to give a clear expression of an opinion and supporting reasons. Speak for the whole 30 second period. Any opinion is acceptable; the PhonePass test is scored according to the way that the opinion is expressed.

Criteria. PhonePass test scores are based on the exact words that you speak, as well as the pace, fluency, and pronunciation of those words as they are combined in phrases and sentences.

Suggestions. Place your call to the PhonePass system on a good telephone in a suitable location. Choose a location that is quiet and where you will not be interrupted. At the beginning of your call, the PhonePass system will tell you if you are speaking too loudly or too quietly. Hold the phone as shown in the figure below and speak in a clear, steady voice. Use a push-button telephone in good working order that is set to "tone" (not "pulse"). Newer phones are generally better than older phones. Do not use a cordless or cellular phone. If you do not know how to respond to a test item, then remain silent or say "I don't know."

PART D: Questions. Now, please just give a simple answer to the questions.

Example:

a voice says, "Would you get water from a bottle or a newspaper?"

and you say, "a bottle." or "from a bottle."

PART E: Open Questions. You will have 30 seconds to answer each of two questions. When you hear a question, you will have 8 seconds to consider it, then (at the beep) you will have 30 seconds to answer it. At the end of the 30 seconds, another beep will signal the end of the time you have to answer.

Question One will be about family life.

Question Two will be about your preferences or choices
